4 Our weary eyes with sleep endue,
But let our heart awake to You.
Let Your right hand our shelter be.
From bonds of sin, Lord, set us free.

6 Remember, Lord, the flesh we wear,
The toils our bodies have to bear.
The comfort which Your wounds have wrought
Give to the souls which You have bought.

5 Lord of the Church, oh, hear our plea!
Our very-present Helper be.
In times of trouble, help afford,
By Your most precious blood outpoured.

7 All honor, praise, and glory be
To God the Father endlessly,
And to His Son, whom we adore,
With God the Spirit, evermore.
